Approved For Release 2001/04/24: CIA-RDP78-03527A000300020006-5

STATINTL

STATINTL

Page 1 Wednesday, November 7 1:00 - 1:15Introductory Remarks by Director of the Office of Personnel Administration 1:15 - 1:45 AID and Internal Defense (S) SA/ID Special responsibilities of AID in supporting U.S. objectives in assisting underdeveloped societies to defend themselves against subversive exploitation of the instabilities associated with economic development. Brief resume of STATINTL 1:45 - 2:00 Questions and Answers 2:00 - 2:45 Historical Background of Subversive Insurgency STATINTL A/PA Mr. Forces in modernizing process which promote internal conflict. The essential relations between social unrest and economic advance. Factors which have tended to unleash the forces of conflict. Brief resume of events leading to STATINTL 2:45 - 3:00 Questions and Answers Friday, November 16 U.S. Overseas Internal Defense Policy Mr. Robert Macchling, G/PM (State) The principal elements of U.S. strategy to attenuate the social instabilities deriving from the modernization process; to prevent

1:45 - 2:00 Questions and Answers

these sources of internal conflict from becoming seeds of violence; to avoid their exploitation by forces inimical to the U.S.;

The country team approach.

and, if necessary, to defeat subversive insurgency.

Approved For Release 2001/04/24 : CIA-RDP78-03527A000300020006-5

November 16 (Cont.)

2:00 - 2:45

STATINTL

1. Communist Goals. Organization and Strategy in Underdeveloped Areas (S)

The Role of CIA in Counterinsurgency (S)

Mr.

1. A brief review of communist strategy, particularly in fomenting and exploiting internal conflict in modernizing societies.

2. A discussion of the mission and capabilities of CIA in support of the U.S. program in counterinsurgency.

2:45 - 3:00

Question Period

Wednesday, November 21 1:00 - 1:45

AII) Counter-Insurgency Program Planning

Mr.

STATINTL

The strategy underlying AID's new programming process; an assessment of long-term planning, self-help, etc., as aids to internal defense capabilities; public safety program potential; and preclusive programing.

1:45 - 2:00

Questions and Answers

2:00 - 2:45

A Summing Up

Mr.

STATINTL

A re-exemination of the lecture series against the backdrop of a selected case study or studies

2:45 - 3:00

Questions and Answers

OFFICIAL USE ONLY